2. Data were gathered for 602 of 738 Warburg Pincus portfolio companies from Warburg Pincus Equity Partners, LP (1998) through Warburg Pincus Global Growth 14 (2022), which represents $97 billion invested. Data was excluded for portfolio companies predominantly from Warburg Pincus Equity Partners (1998) and Warburg Pincus International Partners (2000) where entry financial metrics are not readily available

3. Internal Warburg Pincus analysis based on methodology as described by Professor Oliver Gottschalg and Dr. Bernd Kreuter in the paper “Buyout Value Creation: ‘The difference between small, medium and mega deals’”, October 2010. As with any analysis of this type, the methodology relies on certain good faith assumptions that are inherently subjective. A similar analysis with different assumptions may yield different results.

4. Employees of Warburg Pincus may receive directors’ fees for their service as directors of portfolio companies and there may be situations where Warburg Pincus and/or an affiliate of Warburg Pincus may receive a fee. However, in such circumstances, the management fee of the relevant Warburg Pincus private equity fund is reduced by a proportionate share of the net amount of such fees through a 100% offset.

Recent Updates

Direct access implementation

A new way to make private equity investments<sup>1</sup>

- Opportunity to participate in every new company investment made by the core managers on a deal-by-deal basis, not just the subset of syndicated co-investments available to traditional limited partners with sizable primary investments
  - The Direct Access arrangements cover all the private equity strategies of the core managers, which translates into an estimated pipeline of 40-65 new company investments per year
    - KKR strategies: Regional Flagships<sup>2</sup>, Middle Market, and Health Care Growth
    - Vista strategies: Flagship, Middle Market, and Small Cap
    - Warburg Pincus strategies: Flagship
- Ability to control the sizing and selection of each opportunity based on available capital
- Direct Access investments are typically fully funded upfront (i.e., little or no unfunded obligation), which potentially reduces the impact of cash drag<sup>3</sup> within the registered fund
  - Addresses the fundamental mismatch between fully funded subscriptions from the Fund's investors and periodic capital calls associated with primary investments

Note: Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results and there can be no guarantee that any historical trends will continue over the life of the Fund.

1. iCapital opinion. Direct Access is the first arrangement of its type in a private equity registered fund with deal-by-deal access to buyout, growth buyout and growth equity transactions from a select manager.

2. KKR's flagship private equity includes Americas, Asia and European private equity strategies.

3. Cash drag refers to the opportunity cost of a fund holding a portion of its assets in cash and cash equivalents to meet unfunded obligations, take advantage of future investment opportunities, or provide potential liquidity to shareholders.

Instead, repurchases of units are subject to the approval of the Fund's Board of Trustees (the "Board"). The Fund's units represent illiquid securities of an unlisted closed-end fund, are not listed on any securities exchange or traded in any other market, and are subject to substantial limitations on transferability. LIQUIDITY IN ANY GIVEN QUARTER IS NOT GUARANTEED. YOU SHOULD NOT INVEST IN THE FUND IF YOU NEED A LIQUID INVESTMENT.

The investment adviser of the Fund is iCapital Registered Fund Adviser LLC (the "Adviser"). No assurance can be given that the Fund's investment program will be successful. An investment in the Fund should be viewed only as part of an overall investment program. While the portfolio composition that has been developed by the Adviser reflect its assessment of the relative attractiveness of sub-sectors within the context of an appropriately diversified portfolio, given the percentage of assets that are allocated to investment interests managed by a trio of managers -KKR, Vista, and Warburg Pincus- the Fund is exposed to risks related to KKR, Vista and Warburg Pincus. None of KKR, Vista or Warburg Pincus is a sponsor, promoter, advisor nor affiliate of the Fund. KKR, Vista, and Warburg Pincus acquired an economic interest of less than 8% of the Adviser, and a wholly owned subsidiary of iCapital Network owns an economic interest of more than 75% of the Adviser. iCapital RFA Holding is solely responsible for the management and day to day operations of the Adviser and holds one hundred percent of its voting interests. None of KKR, Vista or Warburg Pincus has control over or voting interests in the Adviser, including no representation on any investment committee or equivalent body or any input into the investment advice provided by the Adviser. KKR, Vista or Warburg Pincus personnel will have no role in approving the Fund's participation in any underlying investment.

The S&P 500 Total Return Index and the MSCI ACWI are widely accepted, unmanaged indexes of U.S. stock market performance and global equity performance, respectively. Indices do not reflect commissions or fees that may be charged to an investment product based on the index, which may materially affect the performance data presented. There are significant differences in the risks and potential for volatility of the Fund relative to an index. Investors may not invest in the index directly. Preqin's database provides information on many active Private Equity funds from different managers and is widely used in the industry to understand trends.

An investment in the Fund is speculative and involves substantial risks. It is possible that investors may lose some or all of their investment. In general, alternative investments such as private equity involve a high degree of risk, including potential loss of principal invested. These investments can be highly illiquid, charge higher fees than other investments, and typically do not grow at an even rate of return and may decline in value. In addition, past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results.

In addition to all of the risks inherent in alternative investments, an investment in the Fund involves specific risks associated with private equity investing. Underlying investment interests and many of the securities held by the investment interests may be difficult to value and will be priced in the absence of readily available market quotations, based on determinations of fair value, which may prove to be inaccurate. Fund investors will bear asset-based fees and expenses at the Fund level, and will also indirectly bear fees, expenses and performance-based compensation of the underlying investment interests.

Underlying funds will not be registered under the 1940 Act.

The Fund's investment portfolio will consist of private equity investment interests of any type ("investment Interests"), in addition to co-investments, in which the Fund previously invested prior to implementing the Direct Access Arrangement, cash and cash-equivalents. Many of such investments interests involve a high degree of business and financial risk that can result in substantial losses.

THE FUND'S PROSPECTUS PROVIDES A MORE COMPLETE DISCUSSION OF THE RISKS SUMMARIZED BELOW

The Fund currently invests a substantial portion of its assets in Investment Interests managed by investment managers affiliated with KKR and in the future expects to invest a substantial portion of its assets in Investment Interests managed by KKR, Vista and Warburg Pincus, and therefore may be less diversified, and more subject to concentration risk and/or investment manager-specific risk, than other funds of private equity funds. If the Fund determines that its focused investment strategy on KKR, Vista and Warburg Pincus Investment Interests is no longer appropriate or desirable, the Fund would allocate its assets to other non-KKR, non-Vista or non-Warburg Pincus investment opportunities which may expose the Fund to other risks or make it more difficult for the Fund to achieve its investment objective.

The Fund's performance depends upon the performance of the investment managers and selected strategies, the adherence by such investment managers to such selected strategies, the instruments used by such investment managers and the Advisers' ability to select investment managers and strategies and effectively allocate Fund assets among them. The Fund is organized to provide shareholders with a multi-strategy investment program and not as an indirect way to gain access to any particular KKR, Vista or Warburg Pincus or other Investment Fund.

The Fund's investment portfolio will consist of Investment Interests which hold securities issued primarily by privately held companies, and operating results for the portfolio companies in a specified period will be difficult to predict. Such investments involve a high degree of business and financial risk, including those relating to the current global pandemic that can result in substantial losses.

Subject to the limitations and restrictions of the 1940 Act, the Fund may use leverage by borrowing money for investment purposes, to satisfy repurchase requests and for other temporary purposes, which may increase the Fund's volatility. Leverage is a speculative technique that exposes the Fund to greater risk and higher costs than if it were not implemented. The Fund will have to pay interest and dividends on its borrowings, which may reduce the Fund's current income.

An investment manager's investments, depending upon strategy, may be in companies whose capital structures are highly leveraged. Such investments involve a high degree of risk in that adverse fluctuations in the cash flow of such companies, or increased interest rates, may impair their ability to meet their obligations, which may accelerate and magnify declines in the value of any such portfolio company investments in a down market.

Fund shareholders will bear two layers of fees and expenses: asset-based fees and expenses at the Fund level, and asset-based fees, carried interests, incentive allocations or fees and expenses at the Investment Fund level. In addition, to the extent that the Fund invests in an Investment Fund that is itself a "fund of funds," the Fund will bear a third layer of fees.

KKR, Warburg Pincus, and Vista personnel have no role in the Adviser's investment process. Because the Fund allocates assets primarily to private equity Investment Interests sponsored by or affiliated with KKR, Warburg Pincus, and Vista (the "Core Independent Managers"), the Core Independent Manager's substantial economic interest in the Adviser may create an incentive for the Adviser to favor the interests of the Core Independent Managers over the interests of the Fund in the assessment and selection of Investment Interests, the negotiation of terms, and the exercise of the Fund's rights in the Investment Interests associated with the Core Independent Managers. iCapital Network and/or its affiliates may advise and/or administer funds that may invest in other funds advised by the Core Independent Managers or which have other relationships with the Core Independent Managers, which may also give rise to a conflict of interest. The Adviser's investment controls, policies and procedures, may help to mitigate these potential conflict of interests.

The Fund has qualified, and intends to qualify in the future, as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code, but may be subject to substantial tax liabilities if it fails to so qualify.

The Fund may invest indirectly a substantial portion of its assets in Investment Interests that follow a particular type of investment strategy, which may expose the Fund to the risks of that strategy.

The Fund's Investment Interests, will be priced in the absence of a readily available market and may be priced based on determinations of fair value, which may prove to be inaccurate. Neither the Adviser nor the Board will be able to confirm independently the accuracy of the investment managers' valuations (which are unaudited, except at year-end). This risk is exacerbated to the extent that Investment Interests generally provide valuations only on a quarterly basis. While such information is provided on a quarterly basis, the Fund will provide valuations, and will issue shares, on a monthly basis. To the extent that the Fund does not receive timely information from the Investment Interests regarding their valuations, the Fund's ability to accurately calculate its net asset value may be impaired. An Investment Interest's information could also be inaccurate due to fraudulent activity, misvaluation or inadvertent error. The Fund may not uncover errors in valuation for a significant period of time, if ever.

There is no market exchange available for shares of the Fund thereby making them illiquid and difficult to dispose of.

The Fund historically employed an "over-commitment" strategy, which could result in an insufficient cash supply to satisfy its commitment. Such a short fall would have negative impacts on the Fund, including an adverse impact on the Fund's ability to pay for repurchases of shares tendered by shareholders or to meet expenses generally. Moreover, if the Fund defaults on its commitment or fails to satisfy capital calls in a timely manner then, generally, it will be subject to significant penalties, including the complete forfeiture of the Fund's investment associated with the commitment.

Investment managers may invest in securities of non-U.S. issuers, including those in emerging markets, and the Fund's assets may be invested in underlying investments that may be denominated in non-U.S. currencies, thereby exposing the Fund to various risks that may not be applicable to U.S. securities.

The Fund is distributed by iCapital Markets LLC ("iCapital Markets"), an SEC-registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA and SIPC. iCapital Registered Fund Adviser LLC, an affiliate of iCapital Markets, serves as the investment adviser to the Fund. iCapital Registered Fund Adviser LLC is registered as an investment adviser with the Securities and Exchange Commission; however, such registration does not imply a certain level of skill or training and no inference to the contrary should be made. The Adviser is exempt from registration with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission as a commodity pool operator.

Pitchbook Global Benchmarks and IRR

The use of a private equity index has several limitations in depicting the performance of private equity as an asset class. The funds included in the index are those that choose to self report. Thus, the index may not be representative of the entire private equity universe, and may be skewed towards those funds that generally have higher performance. Included funds may have different investment strategies and objectives. Over time, the components of the index change. For any given fund included in the index, return profiles will vary for LPs due to a range of factors, including fee discounts, timing of commitments and inclusion of co-investments.

Funds are included and excluded based on performance, creating a “survivorship bias” that can result in a misrepresentation of performance. To be included in pooled calculations, a fund must have: (i) at least one LP report within two years of the fund’s vintage, and (ii) LP reports in at least 45% of applicable reporting periods. To mitigate discrepancies among multiple LPs reporting, the PitchBook Benchmarks (iii) determine returns for each fund based on data from all LP reports in a given period. For periods that lack an LP report, (iv) a straight-line interpolation calculation is used to populate the missing data; interpolated data is used for approximately 10% of reporting periods, a figure that has been steadily declining.

Investment returns on portfolios of listed securities are typically calculated and presented using the time weighted return (“TWR”) method, whereas the industry standard for non liquid, non marketable assets such as private equity is the internal rate of return (“IRR”). The TWR return of a public market index is therefore not directly comparable to the IRR of a private equity investment because the former does not take into account the timing or size of cash flows in and out of a portfolio.

Given the percentage of assets allocated to investment interests managed by KKR, Vista and Warburg Pincus the Fund is exposed to risks related to KKR, Vista and Warburg Pincus. Diversification does not ensure profit or protect against loss in a positive or declining market. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate profits or avoid losses. Past performance is no guarantee of future results and there can be no guarantee that any historical trends will continue over the life of the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to implement its investment strategy or achieve its investment objectives. Holdings are subject to change.
